Dear Clerk of Courts

Hello my name is Connie Barrett & I am currently being held at FCI Butner. In Butner NC I am writing concerning two very pressing matters. One my release date is wrong & was sentenced to six months for violating supervised release. I was arrested on Oct 15th 2014. I was sentenced on Dec 11 2014 which should have my date of release on April 7th this year was under the impression that my time was reduced from the day of my arrest & was known by my lawyer and probation officers. I have went to the record department here and ~~was~~ was told that my jail credit started Nov 1st 2014 a full month after being detained.

My other matter is my fine in which was imposed on me at my sentencing. I order to pay the remainder of a $3000 fine on which I have paid close to $1700. I am asking the courts to relieved of the fine in whole due to not having a record place to stay or any direct line of employment and clothing in my upcoming release. The only source of income I have is my tax refunds. To consider these situations I am facing.

This is an upmost important issue with me that I have money to secure my basic need.

Thank You
Connie Barrett
